Courier Service

[City Express] If you need to get something somewhere in this perpetually gridlocked city quickly, you have two options: hire City Express, or...okay, you've only got one option. Rain, wind, traffic jams, and subway breakdowns fail to thwart this company's army of messengers, who quietly, safely, and responsibly complete rush deliveries, often along custom routes established for regular customers. Full disclosure: We use City Express. Fuller disclosure: We use City Express because they're the most reliable and efficient service out there. And-novelty of novelties—they staff the phones 24 hours a day to fine-tune delivery schedules. [201 South Street, Boston, 617-350-4000]
